DANCE & BRIDAL INSTRUCTOR TIPS

What's the most important thing to consider when picking your First Dance Song?

This is what Tam and Jane have said:

JANE: “Pick a song that is important to you and your relationship. Don’t pick a song because it is the top of the charts at the moment or at the top of a first dance playlist on Spotify.

Select the song that makes you think of your partner and relationship and makes you smile.”

TAM: “You can consider a clear beat or rhythm if it’s your first time dancing, but choose something that gives you both the feels and you won’t tire of hearing once you practice to it over and over.

Listen to the lyrics—what they say about the moment you are creating. Every song is ‘dance-able’, if you love it, you can dance to it.”
